

Bishop Luffa: Art Learning Journey

Develop a life-long love of the visual arts and understand its importance in the world today. With the creative industries being amongst the largest in the UK, you may choose to complete a degree in Architecture, Fashion, Fine Art, Game design Graphic Design, Illustration, Interior Design, Textiles or 3D modelling to name just a few.

piece in a

15 hour

exam.

Start work on your ESA in February.

Produce an essay based on the issues you are exploring in your work.

Explore an art movement of your choice and create an original artwork

TRIP TO

LONDON

Produce your final piece in a ten hour exam.

YEAR

Start work on your ESA in January where you have full creative Experiment with clay.

creative workshops.

The A-level course allows you to develop your own path as an artist and experiment with a broad range of media as you find your path.. Start with a six week 'Artist in residency' at Pallant House Gallery where you will respond to the work of an artist of your choice.

TRIPS TO LOCAL GALLERIES

Experiment with expressive painting, collage or textiles.

of the local landscape and paint outdoors in the second project 'A Sense of Place'.

Visit areas

Start work

building on your work

throughout the year.

on your personal investigation

media of your choosing. Build on your skills as an artist, learning

Experiment with your own ideas and produce a final piece in a

how to work independently, developing your own ideas in a sketchbook and refining your skills in media of your choosing.

TRIP TO LONDON Explore the theme of Identity through photography

Experiment with a range of different drawing techniques

Study range of artists who have explored the theme of 'Identity'.

Try out dry point etching with your own images.

YEAR

Experiment with acrylic paint to make your own portrait.

Create

sculptures with wire

Illustration and poetry

Explore the relationship between art and music

How artists change the world and explore political issues. How can you change the world with art?

Draw a portrait in proportion.

Consider art's impact on the wider world and be exposed to a vast range of media and experimental techniques. Become more independent and confident in your own ability to create exciting, imaginative and personal artwork.

WHERE THE ART IS' TRIP

Study the work of the Cubists and create

your own original

artwork

YEAR

How different artists connect and explore our environment

Look at artistic concepts and explore and question the meanings behind artworks. Continue to develop your skills in observational drawing and drawing from the imagination.

Explore the strange world of surrealism and create your own 3D surrealist sculpture

The visual elements of line, tone, texture, shape, form and colour. Explore a wide range of media and techniques. You will be challenged to create original and exciting works of art.

The principles of colour theory, how artists use it and how to apply it to your own painting.

Welcome! We believe that every student is an artist and we can't wait to start your creative journey with you!

