

Is there certain stationery that you need?

The stationery is not much different to primary school but you can't forget any of it, otherwise you will get a mark which is one of the 3 bad marks towards a detention. The only way if you forget something to avoid a mark is to borrow something of your friends. So make sure that you are fully prepared the night before and my tip would be to have at least 2 of everything just in case something explodes or you lose something or something breaks. It might mean your parents have to spend extra money but at least it gets you out of a detention! You need to have a pen, pencil, ruler, rubber, glue, colours and that kind of stuff. You are not allowed to colour in gel pens or write in sparkly gel pen, and you are not allowed to colour in biro or felt tip. The teachers are VERY fussy about you using felt tip because it will go through the pages in your book.

You don't need too much stationary in Year 7 but you do need the basics such as: Pens (green, black, red) pencils, rubbers, a compass, a ruler, scissors and a protractor.

There is certain stationery you have to have and if you don't have the correct equipment you will get a behaviour point for lack of equipment.
