

LIBRARY MAGAZINE RECOMMENDATIONS

A dash of flair and wit, all about history! This magazine looks at major events in history and their less well known details. Tackling the most important historical events of human history whether they are recent or more at home in the far distant past. Reviews of recent historical media and interviews with witnesses to events that are shaping our future.

Are you always wondering how our world works? Give google a rest and read How it works..designed for inquisitive minds with an insatiable thirst for knowledge this magazine is jam packed with science, technology, transport, space and history features.

Film Junior discusses mainstream movies as well as interviewing featured actors and filmmakers. Written by under 15s for under 15s. Tips for getting started in filmmaking, advice from experienced film directors and celebrating the brilliance of the British Film Industry.

Stay up to date with big nature stories and conservation initiatives. Celebrate truly awe inspiring animals and habitats. Amazing photography.

Latest gaming news, reviews and videos. Contains stories and comic strips, age appropriate video clips, multi-platform gaming reviews and top tips.

The Library Subscribes to DLT Magazines. We have these magazines available to read in the library. We also have copies available to borrow in the same way you would a book! We highly recommend the following magazines, they are enjoyable and informative.

Click the magazine image to find out more!

CONTACT US

library@bishopluffa.org.uk

Download the Accessit
Library Catalogue app.

