

Year 11 English Curriculum Map

Overview	In Year 11, students' reading skills (including analysis, comparison, evaluation and synthesis) and writing skills (describe, entertain, persuade and argue) are developed and refined, so that they are ready for the terminal exams in both English Language and English Literature.
Year 11	Autumn 1	Autumn 2	Spring 1	Spring 2	Summer 1	Summer 2
Topic	Mock preparation and revision: English Literature Paper 2 English Language Paper One	Unseen Poetry and Power and Conflict Cluster poems	Revision English Literature Texts: Jekyll and Hyde An Inspector Calls	Revision Language Paper 1 Literature Paper 1: Macbeth	Terminal Exams
Knowledge	Revision of content and context	Revision of content and context	Revision of content and context	Revision of content and context
Skills	Identify and interpret explicit and implicit information and ideas. Select and synthesise evidence from different texts. Explain, comment on and analyse how writers use language and structure to achieve effects Compare writers' ideas and perspectives	Responding to texts and tasks, use references effectively to support explanation. Explanation of writer's methods with appropriate use of relevant subject terminology Understanding of ideas, perspectives, contextual factors Exploring relationships between texts and their contexts	Responding to texts and tasks, use references effectively to support explanation. Explanation of writer's methods with appropriate use of relevant subject terminology Understanding of ideas, perspectives, contextual factors Exploring relationships between texts and their contexts	Reading Identification, synthesis, explanation, analysis, interpretation, comparison, evaluation Writing Communicate clearly, effectively and imaginatively for different purposes and audiences Using a range of vocabulary and sentence structures for clarity, purpose and effect, with accurate spelling and punctuation.		