

Welcome to King House

Head of House: Miss Hurry
Tutor: Mr Allman

Prayer of St. Richard

Thanks be to you, our Lord Jesus Christ,
for all the benefits which you have given us,
for all the pains and insults which you have borne for us.
Most merciful Redeemer, Friend and Brother,
may we know you more clearly,
love you more dearly,
and follow you more nearly,
day by day.

Amen.

Here at Bishop Luffa Prayer is part of our everyday. All our collective time together either begins or ends with a prayer. If you are used to this then it will most likely feel familiar and of comfort on the other hand it may take time for you to get used to this being a regular part of your day and that's ok. We just ask is that you are respectful and tolerant and that you observe the silence during prayer and use this time to reflect and give thanks.

What's different at Luffa?

- We start early!
- The school is much bigger than you'll be used to
- Lots of lessons/rooms/teachers
- You will be with your tutor group most of the time
- We will help you get to and from your lessons

How can I make the best start in September?

- Be ready for the early start
- Do a practice run getting into school
- Get your bag and equipment ready
- Take care of valuables – especially mobile phones

Who is there to help me?

- Us
- Student Support Services
- Support/the pastoral team/the school counsellor
- Father Phil Amey

Other questions...

- What rewards are there for work in lessons?
- Are there any competitions?
- Are there any clubs?
- Where do I eat lunch, and how do I get it?
- What about mobile phones and social media?
- What about homework?
- What about detentions?

A group of students in maroon uniforms are gathered around a table in a church. They are looking at a book or document on the table. A man in a suit is standing next to them, possibly a guide or teacher. The background shows a church interior with a large painting on the wall.
